Important Notifications

To help the United States government fight terrorism and money laundering, federal law requires us to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: We'll ask for your name, a street address, date of birth, and an identification number, such as a Social Security number or Individual Taxpayer Identification number (ITIN). We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents that will allow us to identify you. We only open accounts for U.S. citizens and current U.S. residents. By signing and submitting this application, you're acknowledging that you're a U.S. citizen or current resident of the U.S.

If you have a freeze on your credit as a feature of credit security monitoring, we may contact you to lift the freeze temporarily to verify your identity.

You authorize us to contact you by using any telephone number you provide to us, including a mobile or cell phone number that you're authorized to use. In addition to manual calling, we may use text messages, prerecorded or artificial voice messages, or automatic dialing systems. We won't charge you for any contact, but your mobile phone service provider may.

Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number (Form W-9 or W-8BEN)

A Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number Form W-9 or W-8BEN is required for each applicant who doesn't currently have an existing account at Ally Bank. Depending on your taxpayer status, each applicant must complete the appropriate W-9 or W-8BEN form.

- Resident – You're a resident of the United States for tax purposes if you a) are a US citizen, b) meet the green card test, or c) meet the substantial presence test. If you're a resident, you must complete, sign, and return the attached form labeled W-9. Criteria for the green card and substantial presence test can be found at IRS.gov
- Non-Resident – If you don't meet any of the Resident criteria above, then you're not considered a U.S. non-resident for tax purposes. If you're a non-resident for tax purposes, you must visit IRS.gov and download Form W-8BEN. Complete, sign, and attach the Form W-8BEN with your application.

FORM W-9 TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER (TIN) CERTIFICATION (Not applicable for Non-Resident Aliens):

For individuals the TIN is your Social Security Number or Individual Tax Identification Number (ITIN) which should match the first name listed on the account and will be used for tax reporting purposes. For other entities, it's your Employer Identification Number.

A. Social Security Number or Employer Identification Number:

0 0 0 2 3 5 4 3 2

B. Certification - Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I'm waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I'm not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I'm exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I haven't been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I'm subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I'm no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I'm a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I'm exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Ally Bank doesn't collect Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) exemption codes. We're required by law to include the aforementioned certifications but note that number 4 doesn't apply.

Backup Withholding Instructions

You must check off the box to the right if you've been notified by the IRS that you're currently subject to backup withholding because you've failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.
